against "those people". Patrick Buchanan said do it by building a wall along the border between America and Mexico, but not a wall between America and Canada. There is far more implicated in this bill than fingernails, and the fact that this Cosmetology Board had so much to do with it is going to cause me to review all of the laws that they administer. And I'm going to find out who the people are on that board, what their background is, where they come from, and if they have any history of engaging in discriminatory conduct of any kind.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If they come from different cities, I'll find out if they've supported housing discrimination, or employment discrimination. For them to so cavalierly put together a bill such as this, I find to be unacceptable. I'm going to withdraw that motion and then put up a motion to bracket, and that would give Senator Suttle or anybody else, who feels they have a need to say something for the record, the opportunity to do so. I would not put a motion up and have the last word on it without it being a close and then pull it. So, at this point, Mr. President, I want to withdraw that bracket (sic) motion and take up...I meant withdraw that return to strike the enacting clause motion and take up the bracket motion.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: The motion is withdrawn. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers, I...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: ...I was going to treat this as a unanimous consent request, but you want to offer it as a motion, Senator?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, I'll offer it first as a unanimous consent.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a unanimous consent request from Senator Chambers to bracket Legislative Bill 68.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: We have a motion to bracket LB 68. Is there objection? Hearing none, bill is bracketed. Mr. Clerk,
